Educational Issues Department

July 22, 23 & 24, 2019
PFT Office—1816 Chestnut Street
9:00 a.m.—2:00 p.m.
$10.00 registration fee (non-refundable)

These sessions are aimed at providing World Language educators with various tools for increasing whole class engagement and student responsibilities through role-play, multi-layered activities, and purposeful assignments leading to larger projects. Through language immersion, clear roles and engaging assignments—students will be able to produce higher levels of interpersonal communication, and as well as outstanding presentational skills.
